DCI WEEKLY REPORT
PUBLIC AFFAIRS OFFICEMedia Relations

D/PAO spent the preponderance of this week dealing first with holding off THE NEW YORK TIMES from reporting the breaking spy case in West Germany and then, with the Media Relations Staff, fielding the media queries on the case after public announcements were made in Europe.

The staff prepared background information to prepare the DCI for a taped radio interview on Friday, 26 August to discuss international terrorism with Lisa Wormwood of THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR Radio "Worldwide Service."

D/PAO spoke to the Office of Communications Conference on Monday, 22 August and to the Executive Seminar on Wednesday, 24 August.

Executive Appearances and Invitations

The DCI made opening remarks and introduced Maureen Bunyon, Channel 9 News anchorwoman, at the Federal Women's Second Annual Symposium that was held in the Headquarters auditorium on Tuesday, 23 August.

The DDCI will address a dinner meeting of Harvard's John F. Kennedy School of Government Executive Program in National and International Security on Friday, 26 August. Attendees will number 100 senior officers in national security, including 2 senior Flag officers, senior grade civilians from defense and the intelligence agencies, and representatives from the defense industry. Staff members of the Senate and House Armed Services and Intelligence committees, and 8 CIA officers will also be in attendance.

Public Relations Unit

25X1 [] received a Certificate of Appreciation from the Commandant, Defense Intelligence College (DIC), for his 25 August presentation on "CIA and Strategic Intelligence" at the DIC's annual symposium on Strategic Intelligence and National Security. The two-week symposium is conducted for 150 or so senior grade reserve intelligence officers from all over the country. On 23 August, 25X1 [] briefed 27 US Air Force officers assigned to the ASTRA program, designed to train junior officers for eventual assignment to the Air Staff in Washington. This was the fourth such briefing for the ASTRA program.
